(c) A small portion of the first groyne was damaged by the knocking of floating logs and bamboo clusters. There was, however, no loss worth mentioning, the repairs costing not more than Rs. 30.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—These groynes are for the protection of the river embankment at Adilakuzhi curve. Was there any damage caused to the embankment during the biggest flood of 1101?

President.—That was in 1099, not in 1101.

Mr. V. K. Aravindaksha Menon.—The embankments became weaker after the flood.

The Thannikkudam Project.

15. Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Will the Government be pleased to state the exact amount spent till now on the Thannikkudam project and how the investigations now stand?

Mr. V. K. Aravindaksha Menon.—The expenditure till now amounts to Rs. 1,483—2—3. A report on the investigation and survey made so far was submitted by the Chief Engineer, and a detailed investigation has been ordered.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—A detailed investigation has been ordered by whom?

Mr. V. K. Aravindaksha Menon.—By the Government.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Who conducts the investigation?

President.—The Public Works Department.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Is the Chief Engineer to conduct the investigation again?

President.—Yes. The first is a general report, and the second is a report on the detailed investigation. The investigation shall be conducted again.
